How do membership dollars go to work for you?

The Chamber of Commerce is a unique organization. By definition it is a voluntary association of business, industry, professional and other interested persons. A growing county chamber such as ours is expected to be as diverse as the people it represents.

Our Chamber puts lobbyists, sales representatives, public relations, marketing, goodwill ambassadors and informational consultants on your payroll.

- CHAMBER WEBSITE Every Chamber Member is listed on the website and can include a link to your website free. Chamber members are welcome to submit events to the Chamber for inclusion on the website.
- REFERRAL NETWORK - The Chamber receives and answers calls from the public either asking for a confirmation that a business is a chamber member or requesting a referral for a specific type of business.
- BROCHURE DISPLAY - Chamber members can bring a quantity of brochures or promotional literature about their business to display in a special display case located in the chamber lobby. The Chamber receives visitors each day who come by the office to gather information on Burleson County, cities and it's local businesses.
- MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY The Chamber produces and distributes a membership directory for visitors relocation and new resident packets. Each Chamber member has a free listing providing vital contact information.
- LOCAL MEDIA Conducts ribbon cuttings and grand openings for new and expanding businesses with local press coverage in the monthly BC Connection inserted monthly in the Burleson County Tribune.
- PROMOTES Actively pursue positive exposure for the area in both regional and state media markets with results. Promotes county events and festivals with listings in state travel calendars, printing and production of brochures, and banners and signage.

The Chamber At Work

Collectively our Chamber offices use several resources and tools everyday to help promote businesses and our communities.

- CHAMBER WEBSITE Every Chamber Member is listed on the website and can include a link to your website free. Chamber members are welcome to submit events to the Chamber for inclusion on the website.
- CHANNEL 12 Channel 12 advertising is available to all chamber members in a business card style format for free including a photos.
- CHAMBER DIRECTORY The Chamber directory keeps your business out there for years to come. Updated annually this is the first piece of information put in the hands of visitors, new residents and those needs business referral information.
- INSITE MAGAZINE- Your membership includes a free subscription to INSITE MAGAZINE- A premier magazine out of Bryan/College Station serving the Brazos Valley.
- MAPS One of our most requested items is local maps and we work to have the most up to date maps available to get people around our communities and Lake Somerville.
- VISITORS BAGS We receive requests for hospitality and/or visitors bags to be made for conferences, reunions, meetings, and tours which will include brochures, business cards, and promotional item promoting your business.
- NEW RESIDENT PACKAGES First shot at potential new business and putting your best foot forward, new resident packages are a delight for new residents looking to get settled in and acquainted with area business and resources.
- NETWORKING Probably the most powerful tool is the Chambers connection to a vast network of people, businesses, information and data that we can share with our members.
- CIVIC REFERRAL Provides referrals for clubs, civic organizations, charities, agencies and governmental bodies to current and new residents.

Your membership strengthens our organization which in turn empowers our businesses, economy and community with the services we can provide.
